Court Rules and Policies

1. You must dress and act appropriately – just as if you were in-person in Court.
2. You must use a private and quiet room that will be free of interruptions.
3. Witnesses must join the hearing from a separate location for sequestration.
4. During the hearing, you may not record the hearing or take photographs.
5. The Court has the discretion to stop the Zoom hearing and reschedule the matter for an in-person hearing, if necessary.
6. The Judge has the same authority over the proceeding and the participants – just as if the hearing was in-person.

Technical Responsibilities of Participants

1. The Court does not provide technical assistance.
2. You need equipment and a network that will allow you to fully participate in the hearing with audio and video; otherwise, your ability to participate in the hearing may be negatively impacted.
3. You always have the option of appearing in person at the Law & Courts Building to participate in the hearing if you don't have the ability to fully participate via Zoom.

Note: Use of a mobile device may incur cellular carrier charges which are the responsibility of the remote participant.
